

Parent Relationships and Health Education Survey – Results

Thank you for taking the time to feed back your views to us around RHE (Relationships and Health Education). Below are the results and some links to documents and websites that will provide you with further information.

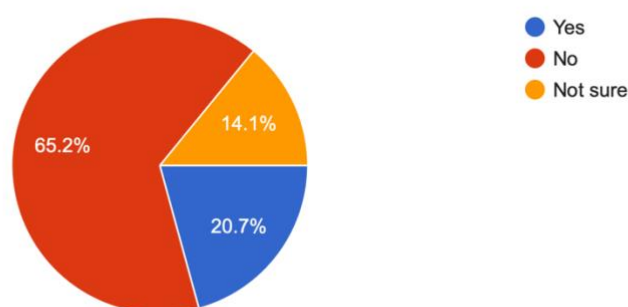

My child is in year group:

135 responses

Do you know that there is a school policy on relationship and health education and where to find it?

135 responses

Please find our RHE policy on our website here.

Do you know the statutory guidance on what primary schools have to teach around growing up, sex and relationships?

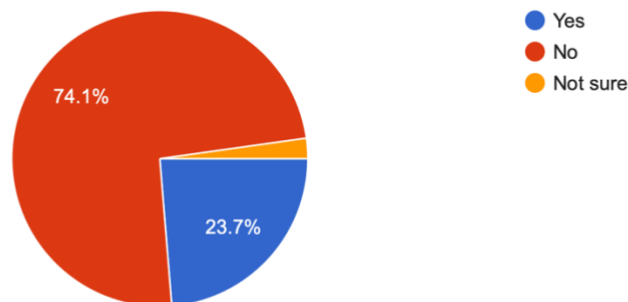

135 responses

Please find the statutory RHE document from the Department for Education here.

Has your child ever talked to you about something they learnt at school to do with growing up, sex and relationships?

135 responses

Has your child ever asked you questions about growing up, sex and relationships?

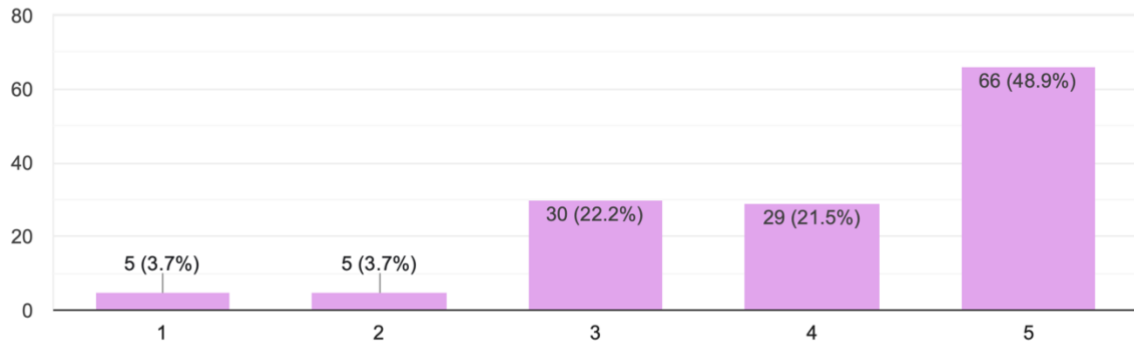

135 responses

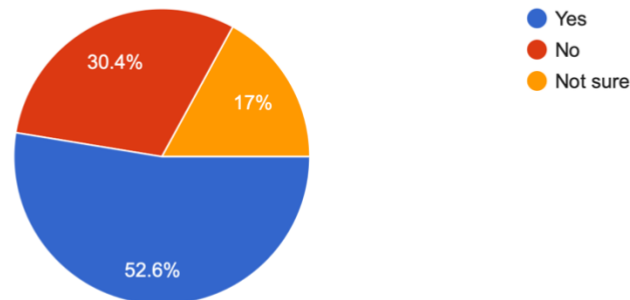

How comfortable/confident do you feel answering your child's questions around growing up, sex and relationships?

135 responses

Do you know where to find information to help support you in your conversations with your child about growing up, sex and relationship?

135 responses

Please find a parent guide here, from Coram SCARF who provide our RHE curriculum. There is also lots of information on their website.

Please find the DfE Parent guide around RHE here.

Would you like more information about what the school teaches on growing up, sex and relationships?

135 responses

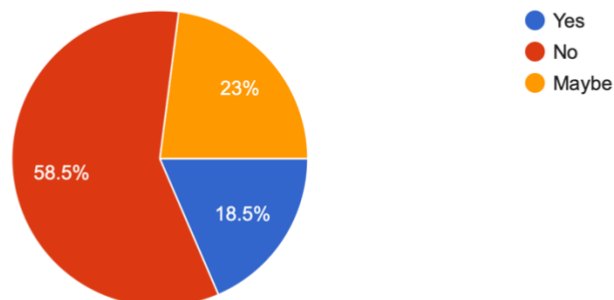

We will be updating our new school website with a lot more information about all areas of the curriculum over the next few months and into the new school year.

This information will include whole school curriculum maps, medium term plans, Year Group Newsletters for each half-term, and Knowledge Organisers used in school.

Do you want more support to help you talk to your child at home about growing up, sex and relationships?

135 responses

If we were to create a parent library of books around growing up, sex and relationships, would you be interested in borrowing any books to help suppo... in your conversations with your children at home?

135 responses

